Mr. Frakes,
not much I say but that I've really enjoyed being in your class. It is about the only class I really have fun in. Hope to have you again.

Mr. Frakes,

I don't know how to write in the bluffs of teachers very well so I'll try my best. I really have enjoyed your class and having you for my English

Mr. Drakes      Mr. Frakes,
What can a student here say about a class like yours? I think I can really say I was scared when we walked in here to have you as our teacher. But as a reader, I was scared! I was scared when I first being in your class. I was scared, still am! (at least most of time) at the first of the year. But the whole year has been fun. Without Jim Webb and Susan Hasler it might have been dull but I sort of doubt it. Hope you don't miss the 4th period vs Seniors too much.

Virginia Hall

Mr. Drakes; I can't wait to see what's in store for me. Susan gave it a thumbs up and you started it off with a smile and you will be a good teacher. I hope I will have a good impression for my first day back!
Go Big Red!

DEAR I GUESS ALL YOU WOULD WANT TO KNOW IS THAT I DON'T APPRECIATE ALL THE WORDS THAT MULLOY T.
WANTS ME TO WRITE IN THIS CLASS.

Mr. Drakes,
I have enjoyed having you for my English teacher. I hope to have for English my senior year. Good luck!

S. I'm really glad was in your class this year. You never knew you could have so much fun
in one class and yet learn as much at the same time.

I can't thank you enough for all the help you gave me in my senior class — I really missed it. I really enjoyed your classes so that it will be hard to leave. Best wishes for the future. See you again too.

Mr. Frakes

They told me when I started my senior year that I should take my English from Conner. I'm glad I didn't though, because I've really had fun in your first period! It's been extended our friendship all the way through my schooling, and I hope it continues on for many years to come. Best of luck with your future
students, and I hope soon
of them can be as smart as I was?

Your friend for life,

Mr. Frakes,

Sorry to be leaving
your class this year.
Wish I could have gotten along with Miss Sellars as good as you. Sure was funny, wish
I could have stuck it

Hope to get you

This Is Our "Master Teacher"

She knows the ups and downs and pleasures,
The trials and problems that abound,
Has counseled, taught, befriended,
And joy in service found.

Patience, effort, understanding,
She has shared without reserve,
Through all these years in Scottsbluff High,
Where so ably she does serve.

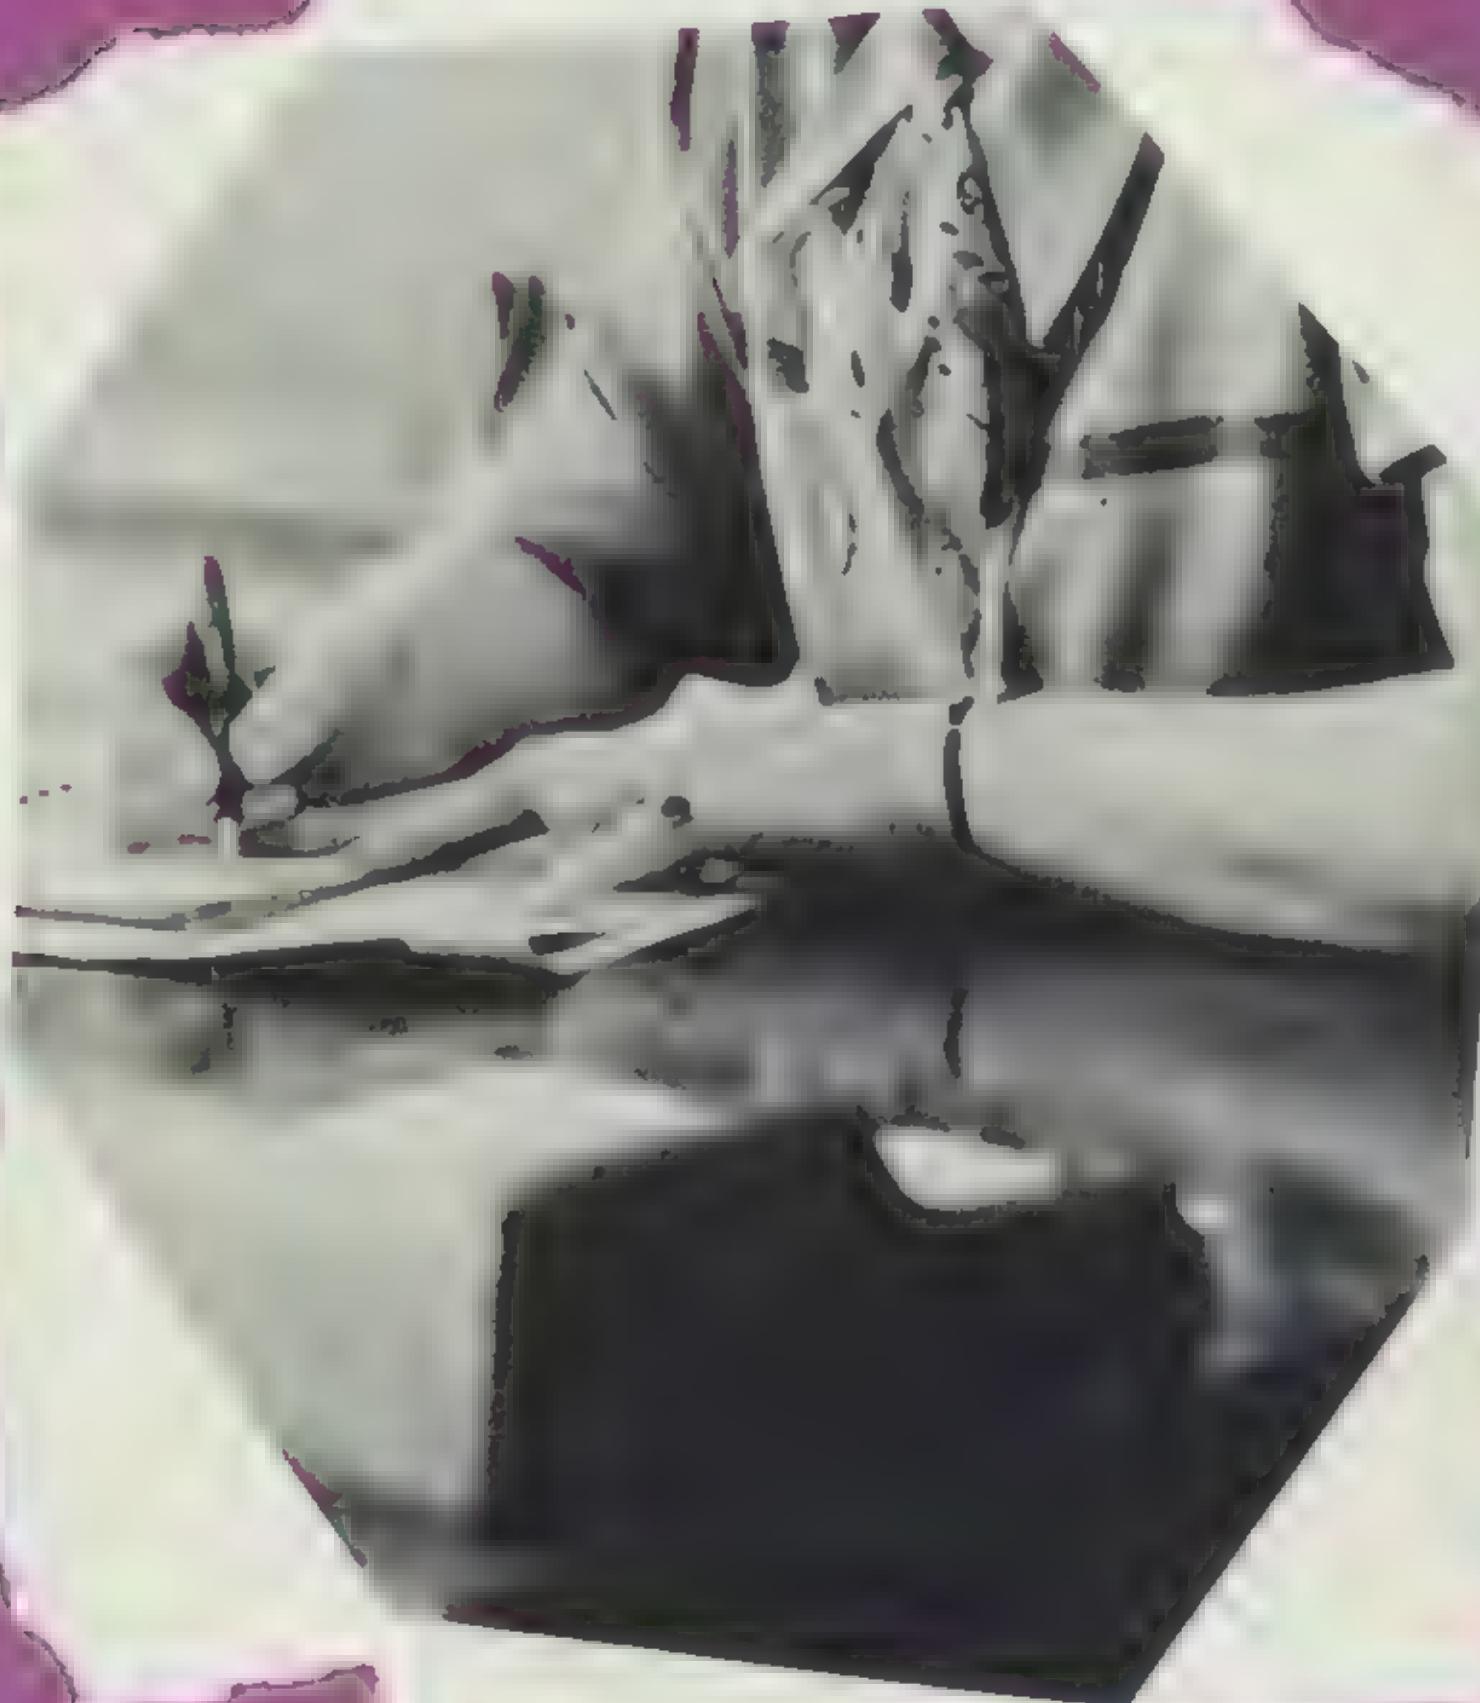

It's with pride we dedicate this annual,
Of cherished memories without end,
To Miss Mabel Charlotte Yensen,
Master Teacher and our friend.

FACULTY

Education Is Their

OTTO G. RUFF has been superintendent of the Scottsbluff Public Schools since November, 1952. In this time he has obtained the respect and admiration of the faculty and students with his methodical administration.

Mr. Ruff flew to Atlantic City, New Jersey, last February to study educational problems on the national, state, and local levels at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

BERNARD L. GOERKE can usually be found in the superintendent's office ably performing his duties as business manager. If he is not there he is probably in the audio-visual aids room directing the projectionists in their varied tasks.

His friendliness and efficiency are well known in the halls of S.H.S.

MEMBERS of the SCHOOL BOARD are C. Lowell Abbott, secretary; Roy D. Greenwalt, Golda Miller, secretary to the superintendent; Otto G. Ruff, superintendent; Glen G. Avery, president; Daniel C. Ramsey, vice president; William E. Skinner, and Frank T. Herhahn, M.D.

Business

PRINCIPAL LAWRENCE LEMONS has won and held the respect of both the faculty and students because of his sound judgment, his dignity, and his fairness toward all. Because of his genuine interest in youth and their problems, he has proved to be a very able counselor.

We are proud of the fact that Mr. Lemons was elected President of District VI of the Nebraska State Education Association in Sidney last October.

Principal Lemons confers with Robert A. Mazzoni, a well known lecturer who spent seventeen months as a prisoner of the Reds in Hungary.

Vice Principal Erickson checks the work of one of his students.

GLENN A. ERICKSON, vice principal of the high school, is known for his friendly and interested attitude toward all problems relating to students and faculty. He taught radio mechanics for the seventh straight year and a trades class for the second year.

When we started in as cocky freshmen, we thought we'd never be seniors. Now that we have attained this goal, the time has flown so swiftly that graduation is already upon us. As a class, we have had our share of scholars, athletes, actors, musicians, practical jokers, journalists, and speakers, now we are ready to face the world.

Then came our junior year. We all pitched in and sold candy, pop corn, and soda pop to finance the prom and banquet. After succeeding in our business ventures, we had a "Gay 90's" banquet complete with a barber shop quartet and can can girls. The prom theme was "On Moonlight Bay," and we danced to the music of Jack Fyffe. Our class officers were Jean Ann Wilks, president; Jim Shehein, vice president; Shirley Adams, secretary; Joyce Terhune, treasurer; Coryl Jones, business manager; and Marlene Loos, assistant business manager.

Won't Things Be

Larry Youngblut and Shirley Salstrom were crowned Homecoming King and Queen at a pep rally before the Alliance game. They were attended by Bruce Baily, Marilyn Flicker, Dick Knaub, and Karen Towner.

Jo Pieper and Denny Oyler seem to be enjoying themselves as they throw the Bulldog dummy into the bonfire before the Homecoming game with Alliance.

John Burton and Denny Oyler run through the line of Skittens and cheerleaders before the McCook game.

These senior girls were in a hurry to put up a booster sign and later noticed Lincoln was misspelled. Did we say seniors?

Coryl Jones, Rita Straetker, Virginia Hall, Sarah Skinner, and Karen Towner are putting the final touches on the Christmas tree that was placed in the lobby on first floor.

Quiet Without Us?

The cheerleaders make a pretty design as they lead the veils for a pep rally.

Sarah Skinner and Howard Hale smile as they are announced Key Club Sweetheart and Nike Knight of 1954. Their attendants were Gary Van Tassel, Virginia Hall, and Rita Streaker. Tom Fegler, also an attendant, is not pictured.

Mary Jane Brehm smiles broadly as she is announced "S" Club Queen during the half time of the Scottsbluff-Gering basketball game. Her attendants are Donna Gerlock and Marlene Kramer. Denny Oyler, Bruce Baily, and Bill Horst tapped the girls for the "S" Club.

Diane Jacobs, who is five feet three inches tall, takes measurements for a cap and gown for Don Benson, who is six feet two inches tall.

Emma Belford demonstrates the art of blowing bubbles to Delores Deines as Armelda Nuss fails.

Raising

The Junior Council must make many decisions during the year. They look as if they can meet the challenge. Front row: Don Bleyle, Sally Abbott, Donna Scriven, Bill Siebler, Bob Thompson. Second row: Carol Busacker, Sandra McGuffin, Jo Ann Shepard, Bob Klas. Third row: Sandy Henderson, Mayrene Maxwell, Peggy Lambert, Clara Lemon. Fourth row: Sharon Rhoades, Adele Fuller, Kay Adama. Back row: Dick Matkins, Bob Sample.

Get your hot popcorn and cold cokes here! Sally Abbott, Jackie Buchler, Sonja Rummell, Sandra McGuffin, and Don Davin port hawk the junior wares at a basketball game.

Money Kept Us Busy

One thing is sure. If you don't soak in much subject matter during your junior year you do develop a pretty good sales technique. Busy juniors work hard to fatten the class kitty in view of the prom and banquet expenses.

During the year the dramatic talent of the class had opportunity to perform. The class added another feather to its cap as the play, "Gramercy Ghost," was tagged a great success.

There's nothing like a prom and banquet to prove that work is well rewarded. Decorating and planning kept the juniors busy till the very last minute, but — ah! — the final result.

Kay Adams and Rosella Dalrymple try their hand at scene painting for the junior class play.

Those late rehearsals paid off! Richard Marker, Ronald Ummel, Larry Wilson, Gary Fettner, and Sandra Henderson run through some action in "Gramercy Ghost."

Studies And Socials Characterized

Posing happily after a class executive session are Darlene Straetker and Madeline Rahn, Student Council representatives; Joseph Gottschben, LaVelle Crumbass and Kendall Massie, sponsors; Betty Norton, secretary-treasurer; Marcia Gilmore, vice president; Shirley Gloyer, sponsor; Myrna Barfoot, Student Council representative; Keith Woods, president; and Jeanne Wolf, Student Council representative.

The sophomore year! One step more, and they'll be upper classmen.

This class was studious but had a grand time all year. Their class party was a dance, and you can be sure it was a success.

Entertainment hit a peak at the sophomore dances when Sharon Sievers did a pantomime of the record "Hey, Joe."

"Jive" and "dreamy" records were enjoyed by the sophomores at their class party.

Freshmen

Began New Adventures

Besides savoring the feeling that comes with being in senior high, the energetic freshmen planned and attended two dances during the year.

With one year of fun behind them the class of '57 is looking forward to three more years of the same.

The fresh trip the light fantastic at a dance in the cafeteria.

A moment of action in a freshman game brings varied expressions to the faces of onlookers Billy Strate, Jerry Johnson, Nick Kirchner, Bill Bevens, Kenneth McFarland, Earl Coons, Bob Carlton, Chuck Derby, Dave Barraza, and Harold Simmons.

Class of '58

Amidst all the confusion and excitement of planning their party for the seventh graders, eighth graders Mary Ann Garcia, Jo Ann Carpenter, Beverly Roberts, Marian Fuller, Kathy Ullrich, Sharon Ehrlich, Agnes Frakes, instructor, Sue Schulte, Sandy Baum, and Judy Wolcott find time to make corsages for them, too.

Some folks say the eighth grade furnishes the most fun in your life, and the class of 1958 probably will agree.

The class introduced a new custom of giving a dance for the seventh graders.

Class of '59

The Class of 1959 jumped into the swing of higher education with both feet, although they might not have remained firmly planted on these feet at a December roller skating party.

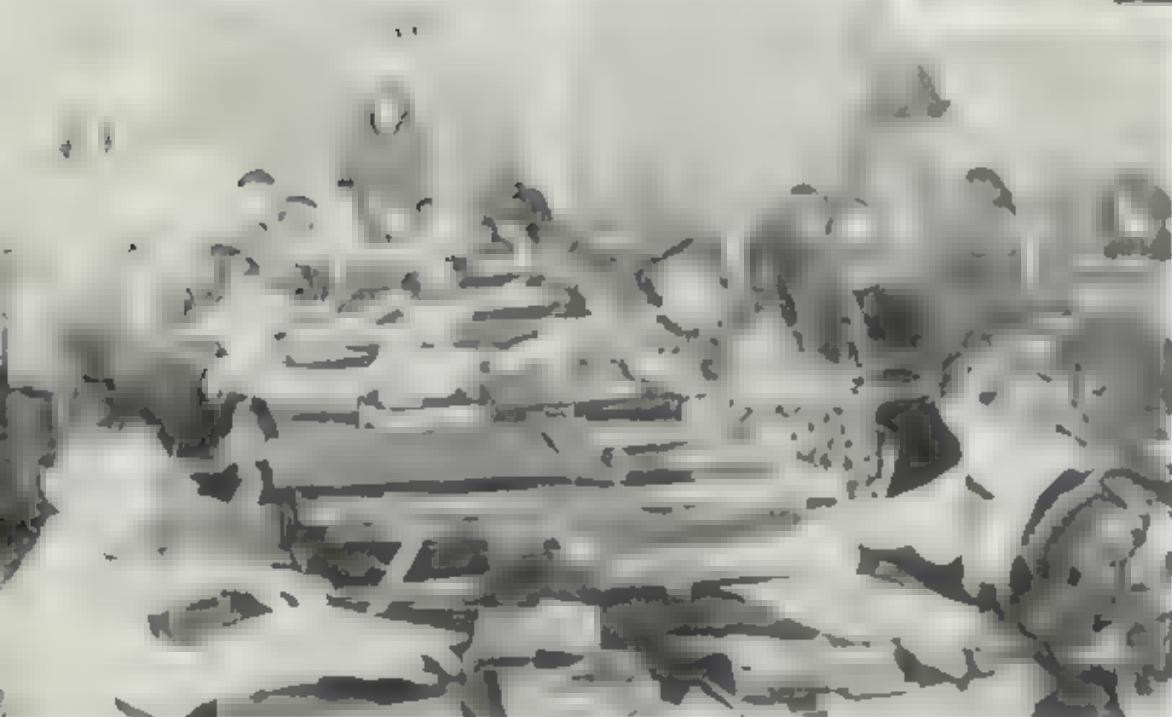

This enthusiastic class contributed to the Homecoming festivities by constructing an attractive banner for the parade

Hungry students can hardly wait for the noon hour. Yvonne King, Mary Ruth Quevedo, Janice Hodg son, and Patty Potter look as if they will enjoy today's meal

Busily expressing themselves in art are the members of Georgene Diers's seventh grade class.

Seventh graders study, too! A tired Kenny Weston catches a quick peek at the books before class Alarm clocks ringing in the "middle of the night" reminded band members of the early morning rehearsals necessary for polished performances. Director Vernon Forbes and the ninety-two members of the Scottsbluff High School band not only gave the football fans good halftime entertainment but carried out other successful activities.

Blurry-eyed might well describe the band members when they arrived home at two o'clock in the morning after the North Platte football game. The buses looked as though a circus had just passed through; girls on diets gained several pounds on doughnuts, fried chicken, candy, etc., but everyone had a good time.

Band "execs" take time out for a picture. They are Dick Bleyle, president; Don Bleyle, student director; Ben Castinado, property manager; Virginia Hall, Student Council representative; Ronald Ummel, vice president; Sandra Henderson, secretary-treasurer; Richard Marker, assistant librarian; and Ken Walker, drum major. Not pictured is Mayrene Maxwell, libra-rian.

Chuck Derby, Kenneth McFarland, Harold Bula, and Jerry Wilmot enjoy a Homecoming parade ride on the instrumental music department float.

Last fall supposedly grown-up band members were seen carrying a large teddy bear to classes. No, they weren't returning to their childhood days; the teddy bear was the reward for selling the highest number of magazine subscriptions for the previous day. The money from the subscriptions was used to help finance the band's trips.

"Eh! Cumpari," "You, You, You," and "Hokey Pokey" were popular songs played by the band at the basketball games. These pieces got the fans in the mood for the dance following the game, while the novelty pep tunes kept everyone in the spirit of the game.

S.H.S. is proud of this snappy marching band.

New and different ideas concerning music interpretation were learned at the Scottsbluff-Alliance clinic held in Alliance last March.

Ken Walker looks sharp as he gets ready to give the band a down beat.

They Are Always

Fiddlers, tooters, and beaters of drums make up the S.H.S orchestra. These musicians furnished the incidental music for the school plays.

The big project undertaken by the orchestra this year was accompanying the senior choir in the operas "Down in the Valley" and "Trial by Jury."

Director Vernon Forbes, Assistant Director Aleta Snell, and the orchestra played host to the Scottsbluff-Alliance orchestra clinic.

Bedecked in formals and suits the orchestra completed the concert season by presenting an assembly, playing for the grade schools, and performing in both the spring and massed concerts.

Music! Music! Music! This was the diet of the Senior Choir in the 1953-1954 school year. Led by a new but very capable director, P. C. Nicholson, and assisted by Beth Finey, the Senior Choir lived up to its name as a truly outstanding high school choir.

Participating in the annual presentation of the Messiah, in the winter and spring concerts, and the Alliance-Scottsbluff Choral Clinic, the members were kept on their toes. Mr. Roger Fee, of the University of Denver, directed the two-day clinic which was held February 8 and 9.

Something entirely new was tried in the way of an operetta this year. A modern opera, "Down in the Valley," and a short operetta, "Trial by Jury," were greeted with great enthusiasm.

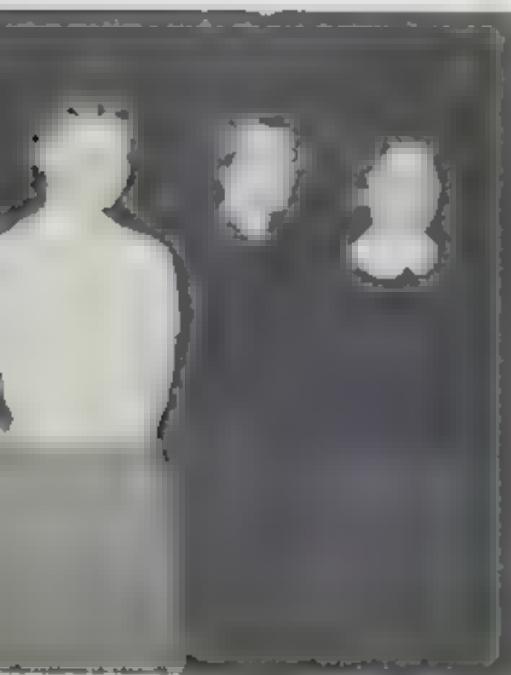

These vocalists have extra duties. They are Shirley Salstrom, business manager; Fred Fenimore, president; Mary Jo Potts, secretary; and Jim Shehein, vice president

Through The Halls

A special activity of the madrigal group was singing at the Scottsbluff College Christmas program. Madrigalists are Kenneth Baltes, Fred Fenimore, Donna Gerlock, Marlene Loos, Jo Ann Pieper, Shirley Salstrom, Jane Lyon, JoAnn Shepard, Jim Sheheim, and Dwaine Price.

The senior girls truly enjoyed singing for various clubs and P.T.A.'s. They are Donna Sichler, Deores Beaman, and Arlene Keeler members of Senior Choir.

Singing Christmas Carols in appropriate garb are Dick Cottrell, Sandra Manrose, Norma Sallstrom and Bob Poppert. They sang in business places during the Yuletide season.

The senior boys' quartet sang for the FFA, banquet, the district journalism clinic luncheon, and meetings of the Cosmopolitan Club and the Kiwanis Club. Pictured are Dwaine Price, Jim Sheheim, Fred Fenimore, and Gene Dybdahl.

And "Down In The Valley"

Senior choir members took on a new field of endeavor this year when they presented a double-bill opera, Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury" and Kurt Weill's "Down in the Valley." P. C. Nicholson, vocal music instructor, directed the productions.

"Trial by Jury" is centered around a breach of promise suit. The plaintiff, Angelina, sues the defendant, Edwin, for jailing her at the altar. The court and the jury are against the defendant from the start of the trial, but in the usual Gilbert and Sullivan manner where confusion reigns supreme all the problems are solved when the judge gets bored with the trial and offers to marry Angelina.

In contrast to the Gilbert and Sullivan comedy, "Down in the Valley" is an American folk opera. The story tells about Brack Weaver, a young man who is condemned to hang and Jennie Parsons, his sweetheart. Feeling that he must see his sweetheart again, Brack makes a successful jail break. Finding Jennie, he reminisces with her the short and tragic phases of their romance. Satisfied that Jennie really loves him, Brack finds a certain degree of contentment even though he faces death.

Beth Finey, assistant vocal music director, helped with these operas, and the orchestra, under the direction of Vernon Forbes, did the accompaniment.

Diane Jacobs, senior-faculty editor, Owen Lyon, sports editor, and Jean Ann Wilks, copy editor, take time to smile at a typing error.

Inexperienced but enthusiastic, the Bluff staff set out to create the best yearbook possible. Staff members slaved over copy, layouts, and typing and worked late to meet their three deadlines.

It wasn't all work, however. The district, state, and national conventions and the bowling team (also inexperienced but enthusiastic) added to the fun of being a Bluff staffer.

Engineering the first district journalism clinic for the panhandle was a challenging project of the staff. Making favors, planning programs, and preparing panel discussions occupied a great deal of the busy seniors' time during the week preceding October 2.

Having had hot debates over the theme, cover, and division pages, the staff heaved a sigh of relief as the last pages were sent to the publishers.

Work Overtime

Roving Reporters

The Brenda Starrs and Damon Runyans of S.H.S. kept busy this year with beats, scoops, contests, ads, and deadlines plus a larger paper, to say nothing about the conventions and clinics in which they participated.

A blowout, a leaky boat, and a swanky restaurant added color to the trip of the five S.H.S. journalists and their advisor, Irene Auble, who attended the National High School Press Association convention in Minneapolis last August.

In order to promote better high school journalism in the valley, the S.H.S. journalism department conducted an experimental regional journalism clinic.

Columnists Glenda Childs and Sylvia Sansom look over one of their stories while Steve Everett, circulation manager, prepares to mail the Echoes to exchange staffs.

Dick Cottrell, Owen Lyon, and Steve Everett pretty up the Echoes room by putting a fresh coat of paint on the typing table.

Scurrying home to display the awards won at the Nebraska High School Press convention, seven staff members and Miss Auble took a short cut, got stuck, and had a pushing good time. In the divisional contests, Mary Jane Brehm won second in page layouts, Jean Ann Wilks won third in news writing, and Owen Lyon won third in sports column writing.

Jean Ann Wilks, Jayne Sample, and Rita Jane Carroll won first, second, and third in the county tuberculosis essay contest.

Amid the sweet aroma of paint and turpentine, artists pose and paint. S.H.S. "Rembrandts" have found that art has many phases. Their work has included sketching, painting, spatter painting, silk screening, clay modeling, wire sculpturing, and saw dust modeling.

The art department sponsored an art exhibit from the University of Nebraska, and several of the students attended the Fine Arts Festival in Lincoln.

An art exhibit gives many adults a chance to see the work of the S.H.S. art students

The large crowds that gathered for games, plays, and concerts at S.H.S. were handled by the efficient and dependable usher crew.

It made no difference to the ushers whether the event was a game, play, or concert; they still had a number of people asking, "Where is this seat?" or demanding a seat down front. They did a good job and did it with little reward.

Don Tompkins was head usher and Student Council representative.

They Are S.H.S. Legislators

Leading the Student Council through the year's activities were Donna Gerlock, treasurer; Karen Towner, president; Steve Everett, vice president; and Mayrene Maxwell, secretary.

Sponsors Shirley Pengelly, Clara Herrmann, Roland Urbanek, Harold Reeves, Fred Petersen and P. C. Nicholson relax for a minute to say "cheese" for the photographer.

The Rose Parade in Pasadena received some competition last fall when the Student Council inaugurated a Homecoming parade. Marching bands, decorative floats, and royalty highlighted the celebration.

The Student Council coordinated the school activities by being a "clearing house" for school events and setting up a calendar.

S.C. hustlers sold Savings Stamps, Bearcat booster plates, and football programs. They got experience serving on an election board when they took charge of class elections.

For the student body's enjoyment, the council planned assemblies, sponsored the post-commencement dance, and held the annual penny carnival.

The legislators that make up this organization represent classes, clubs, and other activity groups. The president and vice president are elected by the student body.

Burning the midnight oil was declared worthwhile by ten juniors when they were tapped as pledges for the National Honor Society in the spring of '53. The pledges were chosen from the top five per cent of the junior class.

This spring the pledges received their pins and tapped the seniors who round out the society's membership. These seniors were chosen from the top fifteen per cent of the senior class.

The cardinal principles of the society are character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Sponsors for the organization are Alice Carter, Beth Finecy, and Bob Conner.

If you know what's cooking in English class, then you might consider taking journalism when you're a junior and one or both of the publication staffs when you're a senior. That will make you partially eligible for membership in Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for high school journalists.

In addition, you must be in the upper third of your class, must have done superior work in some phase of journalism, and must be recommended by the advisor, Irene Auble.

In keeping with the traditions of Nike Club, the girls chose secret pals, provided a needy family with a Thanksgiving dinner, held a valentine party for the Torrington orphans, provided an information booth in the lower hall, decorated the bulletin boards, and entertained their parents at a spring banquet.

The girls introduced a new custom when they elected a Nike Knight and attendants to correspond with the Key Club Sweetheart and attendants. Howard Hale, the Nike Knight, was presented at the Nike-Key Club Christmas dance, and Gerry Van Tassel and Tom Fegler were his attendants.

The Nike Club is sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club, and membership is based upon scholarship.

With a five cent fine for every remark made out of turn. Pete Gunderson and John Gable made numerous contributions to the Key Club treasury. Sergeant-at-arms Hale especially enjoyed his job of fining the culprits.

During the past year the forty members have oiled seats in the auditorium, polished the concert grand piano, and made change during the noon hour as a service to the school. They sponsored a fund to buy two new flags, one for the outside and one for the auditorium. They also built a basketball roster board for the student section of the auditorium.

The social events of this club included a hayride, a Sadie Hawkins Day dance, and a Christmas semi-formal.

Key Club officers are Gene Dybdahl, secretary; Don Camerzell, president; Howard Hale, sergeant-at-arms; Roy Schuldies, Student Council representative; Gary Seger, vice president; and Roger Schmidt, treasurer. Sponsors are Vernon Forbes, Harold Reeves, and Warren Brown.

Between games of pool at the Y.M.C.A. recreation room, President Bob Austin did a good job of directing the Hi-Y this year.

Hi-Y members are jacks-of-all-trades—experienced politicians, ushers, carpenters, janitors, and public speakers. Gary Seger was elected lieutenant governor at the Hi-Y legislature conference in Lincoln. Hi-Y boys ushered at the Ministerial Association program, built a Homecoming float with the Teen Queens, prepared the cafeteria for the Sock Hop, and took part in Holy Week meditations.

The Hi-Y is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., is open to all boys in grades nine through twelve, and gives its members a chance to be of service and to participate in Christian fellowship.

The Future Homemakers of America have not only been busy learning the tricks of the trade but have also been a welfare agency. The girls sent gifts to almost every country, sponsored clothing drives, and performed other helpful tasks.

Merry-making and service for these girls consisted of a scavenger hunt, world festival party, a faculty tea, a square dance, and a spring mother-daughter banquet. They displayed their culinary ability by preparing the banquet for the F.F.A. boys and their parents.

F.H.A. officers are Shirley Adams, president; Alice Lundgren, first vice president; Donna Schlauger, second vice president; Betty Ruppel, recreation chairman; Shirley Bolzer, parliamentarian; Joyce Stricker, secretary; Laura Betzold, treasurer; Emma Bellford, Student Council representative; Janice McMullen, historian; and Jo Ann Mitchell, publicity chairman.

The Bearcats of '53 had a successful football season, winning seven of nine games to become co-champions of the West Big Ten.

The Cats reeled off seven straight wins before dropping their last two games of the campaign. Highlights of the win streak were victories over Ft. Collins and Lincoln High. Ft. Collins, Colorado State Champions, fell before the brutal Bearcats 25-14. Lincoln High went down to defeat 14-6. It was the first win over Lincoln by a Bearcat team in the 15-year-old rivalry.

At the season's end the Cats were rated number five by most polls throughout the state.

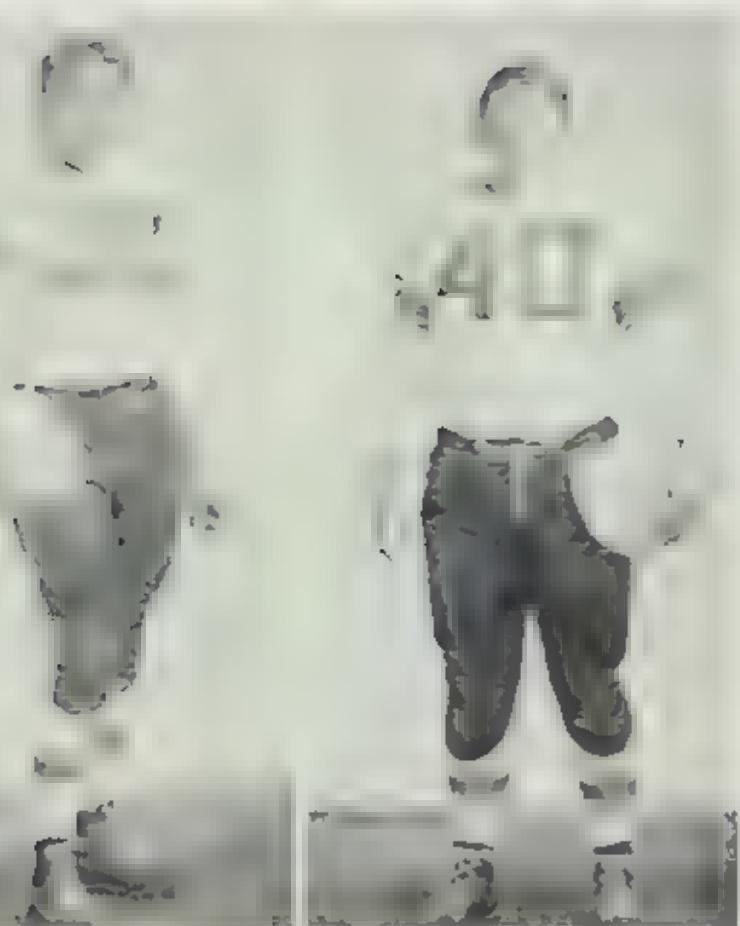

Bearcat coaches seem well pleased with the football season. They are Wayne Binfield, backfield coach; Shelby Edwards, freshman coach; Lauren Schwisow, head coach; Roy Kishling, freshman — and Bill Conner, reserve coach; Fred Petersen, reserve coach; and Jerry Hooper, line coach.

Class B Sidney gave the Bearcats a big scare, when they pressed the Cats to a 7-6 decision. An inspired Sidney eleven played the Bearcats on even terms for the first three quarters. A break paved the way for the Bluff TD in the final quarter. A Sidney back, being tackled in the end zone, threw the ball out in an attempt to prevent a safety. Tackle Bill Horst picked the ball out of the air and dashed into the end zone for the lone score. Jim Allen added the extra point which proved to be the margin of victory.

SCOTTSBLUFF 14 LINCOLN 6

Playing the best ball of the season, a determined Scottsbluff team took the field to defeat a stubborn Lincoln Central team 14-6. It was the first time in S.H.S. history that the Bearcats ever defeated the Capital City crew.

Allen ran the first touchdown, and Larry Yungblut kicked the extra point.

Knaub scored the winning touchdown on a brilliant 80-yard punt return aided by some fine blocking.

SCOTTSBLUFF 23 KEARNEY 0

Scottsbluff took to the road after a two-week home stand to trounce Kearney 23-0 for their sixth straight victory and second Big Ten win.

Played on a rain-soaked field, the game was all Scottsbluff's. The Cats scored first on a safety and then roared for three touchdowns. Dick Knaub passed to Tony Taylor and Dick Cottrell for scores. Marv Kaufman bulled over for a third tally.

SCOTTSBLUFF 0    CASPER 33

On the eve of Halloween, the Casper Mustangs snapped Scottsbluff's winning streak at seven by trouncing the Cats 33-0. The Mustangs could do nothing wrong, and the Bearcats could do nothing right. It was sweet revenge for Casper who took a shellacking from the Bluffs a year before. Casper scored all 33 points in the first half as the Bearcat defenses stiffened and held them scoreless the second half.

SCOTTSBLUFF 20    ALLIANCE 26

Armistice Day of '53 will be remembered as one of the few sad days at S.H.S. The big Bearcats, needing a win or tie over arch-rival Alliance to cinch their second straight West Big Ten title and playoff berth against high riding Grand Island, fell before the Bulldogs 26-20.

Nearly 5,500 Homecoming fans packed Bearcat Stadium to watch the Cats lose their second game in nine starts. The Bearcats led at halftime 14-13, but Alliance came back to push over two touchdowns in the final quarter for a hard-fought victory. It was the last game for nineteen Scottsbluff seniors.

Here is some action from the close tourney game between the Black Hawks and the Gophers. The Black Hawks won 46-45.

Another fine intramural season under the direction of Holland Payne was enjoyed by senior high basketball enthusiasts. Thirteen teams participated in the Senior-Junior League, and nine more took part in the Sophomore-Freshman League.

The season was brought to a grand climax with the annual Intramural Basketball Tournament. Walking off with top honors in the Senior-Junior League were the Liliuakalones, who beat the Eight Balls in the finals 59-46.

Copping the championship in the Sophomore-Freshman League were the Black Hawks. They edged out the Gophers 46-45. In the play-off the Liliuakalones defeated the Black Hawks 72-40.

Gals Enjoy Intramurals

The girls participating in the girls sports activities stop to pose for a picture. Front row: Sharon Kay, Sherry Hunter, Patty Jinks, Mary McCaffrey, Susan Ruzas, Judy Loomis, Bobette Reading, Nadine Lura, Jeannette Summerville. Second row: Jo Peter, Pat Boyle, Aen Williams, Durane Bartholomew, Brenda Cook, Sharon Ustohal, Betty Schmidges, Marian Fil-

While many students are enjoying an afternoon coke, these energetic S.H.S. gals like to get together and build up "the body beautiful" through athletic endeavors.

A number of these girls have perfected their hook shots and set shots to such a degree that they are outstanding players in the valley basketball league.

When these girls aren't playing basketball, volleyball, or softball, they can be found tumbling or jumping on the tramp.

Sandra Sanderson and Judy Johnson show perfect form on the tramp. Watching are Carol Griffith, Judy Tompkins, Charlotte Huston, Hazel Howell, Mary Wright, and Jackie Wedemeyer, instructor.

With pep and enthusiasm, Skittens members once again back the team with songs, cheers, and chants.

They're Peppy!

"Back the team" was the Skittens' motto as they cheered the Bearcats on to victory with rallies, skits, posters, and a bonfire rally.

The Skittens held a coronation for the Homecoming royalty and presented a Skittens King and attendants at their spring semi-formal dance.
